

Haiku (high-koo) poetry

was developed in Japan
in the 17th Century.

They try to record the essence of
a moment
inspired by nature.

“
hoar frost –
wire strands turn
into silver

”

Creativitree #2

Creativitree #2

Create a haiku. Usually they're written in three lines of 17 or fewer syllables, and contain a reference to nature.

   #Creativitree