

Group visits to Westonbirt Arboretum are a breeze – with coach drop-off points near to our Welcome Building and dedicated coach parking, you'll find a warm welcome from our friendly team of staff and volunteers.

Why not get even more from your visit by booking a guided tour? Our knowledgeable volunteer guides offer tours lasting around 1.5 hours. The cost for a guide is £50 in addition to your admission.

Tour options

Old Arboretum

(No dogs allowed)

Easy walking on grass and hard paths. Wheelchair users may wish to remain on paths and be accompanied by a carer. This tour will introduce you to the beauty and complexity of this superb tree collection, with some fascinating glimpses into the lives of the Holford family who created the arboretum in the nineteenth century.

Silk Wood

(Dogs allowed)

Walking on woodland paths and mild gradients. Waterproof footwear recommended. Not suitable for wheelchair users. This tour looks at the rich variety of Silk Wood, which encompasses both the oldest and youngest parts of the arboretum, from native woodland to ornamental plantings.
