

Dalby Members' Week - Spring 2026

Terms and conditions

Guided 5K Run

- This event is exclusive to Forestry England Members, and tickets are limited to two per membership.
- This event will take in the 5K running route at Adderstone. The meeting point is the information boards in Adderstone Field.
- Children must be accompanied by an adult.
- Well behaved dogs on short leads are welcome to join this event.
- This event does not take place on an accessible trail.
- If you book onto this event and cannot produce a proof of your valid Forestry England membership on arrival, you will be unable to join the activity

Nordic Crafts Workshop

- This event is exclusive to Forestry England Members, and tickets are limited to two per membership.
- The event is suitable for ages 12 and over, children must be accompanied by an adult.
- Whilst we love dogs at Dalby Forest, this particular event is dog-free.
- This event takes place on the ground floor of Dalby Visitor Centre in our event space.
- There is accessible parking bays close to the Centre, and an accessible bathroom is available.
- If you book onto this event and cannot produce a proof of your valid Forestry England membership on arrival, you will be unable to join the activity
- Please only book tickets if you are confident you can attend and let customerrelations@forestryengland.uk know as soon as possible if you are no longer able to make it so we can release your tickets for other members to enjoy.

Perspectives, Photography Guided Walk

- This event takes place at Staindale Lake which is an accessible trail.
- This event is exclusive to Forestry England Members, and tickets are limited to two per membership.
- Children must be accompanied by an adult.
- Well behaved dogs on leads are welcome to join this event.
- This event takes place at Staindale Lake which is an accessible trail.
- You will meet our volunteer at High Staindale car park. There is accessible parking bays close to the lake, and an accessible bathroom is available.
- If you book onto this event and cannot produce a proof of your valid Forestry England membership on arrival, you will be unable to join the activity
- Please only book tickets if you are confident you can attend and let customerrelations@forestryengland.uk know as soon as possible if you are no longer able to make it so we can release your tickets for other members to enjoy.

Natures Song, Wellbeing Workshop

- This event is exclusive to Forestry England Members, and tickets are limited to two per membership.
- Children must be accompanied by an adult.
- Please wear warm waterproof clothing and bring binoculars if you have them.
- Whilst we love dogs at Dalby Forest this is a dog free event.
- If you book onto this event and cannot produce a proof of your valid Forestry England membership on arrival, you will be unable to join the activity
- Please only book tickets if you are confident you can attend and let customerrelations@forestryengland.uk know as soon as possible if you are no longer able to make it so we can release your tickets for other members to enjoy.

Feathered Friends Feeder Workshop

- This event is exclusive to Forestry England Members, and tickets are limited to two per membership.
- Children must be accompanied by an adult at the start of the session, but grown-ups may head to the Dalby Forest Café during the workshop if they wish.
- As this is an activity for Children, tickets are only required for children taking part in the activity - parents do not need a ticket.
- Whilst we love dogs at Dalby Forest, this particular event is dog-free.
- This event takes place on the ground floor of Dalby Visitor Centre in our event space. There is accessible parking bays close to the Centre, and an accessible bathroom is available.
- If you book onto this event and cannot produce a proof of your valid Forestry England membership on arrival, you will be unable to join the activity
- Please only book tickets if you are confident you can attend and let customerrelations@forestryengland.uk know as soon as possible if you are no longer able to make it so we can release your tickets for other members to enjoy.

Art Workshop

- This event is exclusive to Forestry England Members, and tickets are limited to two per membership.
- The event is suitable for ages 14 and over.
- Whilst we love dogs at Dalby Forest, this particular event is dog-free.
- This event takes place on the ground floor of Dalby Visitor Centre in our event space. There is accessible parking bays close to the Centre, and an accessible bathroom is available.
- If you book onto this event and cannot produce a proof of your valid Forestry England membership on arrival, you will be unable to join the activity
- Please only book tickets if you are confident you can attend and let customerrelations@forestryengland.uk know as soon as possible if you are no longer able to make it so we can release your tickets for other members to enjoy.

Forest Wilding

- Please note, this event is a tour of Newtondale. It is not in Dalby Forest.
- The What3words for the meeting point & parking at Station Elbow is: `///objecting.shepherdess.jotting`
- This event is exclusive to Forestry England Members, and tickets are limited to two per membership.
- Children must be accompanied by an adult.
- We will cover 8-10km of steep, uneven and occasionally boggy terrain.
- Well behaved dogs on short leads are welcome to join this event.
- Please bring a packed lunch and drinks with you.
- There are no toilets on route.
- If you book onto this event and cannot produce a proof of your valid Forestry England membership on arrival, you will be unable to join the activity
- Please only book tickets if you are confident you can attend and let customerrelations@forestryengland.uk know as soon as possible if you are no longer able to make it so we can release your tickets for other members to enjoy.

Woodland Dream Catchers Workshop

- This event is exclusive to Forestry England Members, and tickets are limited to two per membership.
- Children must be accompanied by an adult at the start of the session, but grown-ups may head to the Dalby Forest Café during the workshop if they wish.
- As this is an activity for Children, tickets are only required for children taking part in the activity - parents do not need a ticket.
- Whilst we love dogs at Dalby Forest this is a dog free event.
- This event takes place on the ground floor of the Dalby Forest Visitor Centre in our event space.
- There are accessible parking bays close to the Visitor Centre, and an accessible bathroom is available.
- If you book onto this event and cannot produce a proof of your valid Forestry England membership on arrival, you will be unable to join the activity
- Please only book tickets if you are confident you can attend and let customerrelations@forestryengland.uk know as soon as possible if you are no longer able to make it so we can release your tickets for other members to enjoy.