Walking trails at Grizedale Forest

Grizedale forest in the heart of the Lake District World Heritage Site, offers an unrivalled day out for everyone.

From the visitor centre

Millwood Trail ●●●

Short trail: 1km (0.6 miles)
Long trail: 2.5km (1.5 miles)

A short introduction to the forest alongside some of the oldest trees at Grizedale (many over 100 years old).

Carron Crag Trail ●●●

5km (3 miles)

This strenuous walk takes you to the highest point in Grizedale (314m). Enjoy a well-earned picnic at the top whilst taking in panoramic views of Conistoun Old Man and the Central Lakeland fells.

From The Yan

Ridding Wood Trail ●●●

1.5 km (1 mile)

The shortest and easiest trail at Grizedale through some unusual and ornate trees as well as beautiful oak woodland.

Grizedale Tarn Trail ○○○

6.5 km (4 miles)

A newly opened section of this trail will help you explore a different area of the forest and passes over the Centenary Bridge, built by our volunteers to commemorate the Forestry Commission Centenary in 2019.

Silurian Way ●●●

16km (10 miles)

The ultimate Grizedale walk! A grand tour of the forest with many different artworks and views along the way.
